ART BETWEEN US

MISSION

ART BETWEEN US is dedicated to dissolving isolation in our human family through art. We teach collaboration skills using various creative modalities in experiential workshops and public events. We believe all people are creative and that by engaging the creativity that lies in the shared spaces between us, we can find keys to community building, conflict resolution, and sustainable futures.

Our programs are designed for all ages, ethnicities, classes, religions, abilities and sizes with a particular emphasis on women and girls. Our focus is on:

- φ Becoming fluent in collaboration.
- φ Expressing creativity as a social process.
- φ Getting out of our heads and into our body-minds.
- φ Creating peaceful collaborations to resolve conflict.
- φ Losing our self-consciousness; finding our self in community.

WHO ARE WE?

We are a California non-profit corporation founded in 1992 as an action forum for ideas later articulated in The Emperor has a Body: Body-Politics in the

Between (Javelina Books: Tucson, 1998) by S. Elise Peeples.

We have a Board, volunteers, and the following staff:

Executive Director: Elise Peeples is a writer of fiction and non-fiction and a mediator with a BA in Psychology and an MA in Philosophy.

Event Coordinator: Viviane DeLeon Bias is an herbalist, story teller, musician, and body worker.

PUBLICATION:

The Spiral (Minding the Body, Inc: Berkeley, 2000) is a workbook authored by 8 women with talents in collaborative art, improv., music, dreams, our habitat, movement, and/or writing. The Spiral provides concrete explorations of the Betweens, the rich, creative spaces that are between us.
